The Management Board of Artifex Mundi S.A., with its registered office in Warsaw (the “Company”), announces that on October 28, 2025 it received a statement from the National Depository for Securities (KDPW) confirming the conclusion of an agreement to register in the securities depository 370,455 registered Series 2E subscription warrants (the “Warrants”). The registration date for the Warrants was set for October 30, 2025.

The issuance of the above-mentioned financial instruments is connected with the implementation of the second stage of the Incentive Program in force at the Company, which the Issuer informed about in current report No. 26/2023 dated August 10, 2023.

The issued Warrants entitle eligible persons to subscribe for 370,455 Company shares within 3 years from the date of taking up the Series 2E Warrants, under the terms specified in the Incentive Program Regulations, which constitute an appendix to Resolution No. 17 of the Company’s Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders dated June 28, 2023, published in current report No. 21/2023.

Pursuant to § 6(4) of the Incentive Program Regulations, holders of the Warrants are entitled to subscribe for a number of Company shares corresponding to the number of Warrants held at an issue price of PLN 9.01 per share, or—under the rules set out in § 6(5) of the Incentive Program Regulations—to subscribe for a reduced number of Company shares at the nominal value per share.
